

PCTEL Adds SYNEX to Its List of Distributors for Antennas

January 28, 2021

BLOOMINGDALE, Ill.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 28, 2021-- PCTEL, Inc. (Nasdaq: PCTI), a leading global provider of wireless technology, including purpose-built Industrial IoT devices, antenna systems, and test and measurement solutions, announced that it has entered into a distribution agreement with SYNEX Corporation a leading provider of distribution, systems design, and integration services for the technology industry.

"We are very pleased to announce our new distribution agreement with SYNEX. This strategic relationship with SYNEX will enhance our antenna business in the Industrial IoT market. PCTEL's innovative and robust antenna portfolio, which solves complex wireless connectivity challenges, and SYNEX's customer relationships are the right combination to drive our customers' digital transformation," said Arnt Arvik, PCTEL's Vice President & Chief Sales Officer. "We are looking forward to new opportunities to increase our presence in the high-growth market of Industrial IoT."

Scott Young, Vice President of Product Management, SYNEX, described what he sees as a tremendous opportunity to team with PCTEL in providing innovative solutions for SYNEX partners.

"This agreement adds a leading and innovative antenna solutions option for our partners across all verticals," Young said. "Additionally, PCTEL's deep knowledge and relationships in the IoT market, along with our team's expertise, bring new opportunities to our Public Sector and Federal partners as their customers continue to adopt AI and cloud technology."
